EIDL

Economic Injury Disaster Loan Update

- Available for all eligible small businesses.
- Expires on December 21, 2020.
- As of July 11, 2020, SBA stopped processing EIDL Advance requests, because program funds have been fully allocated. EIDL loan applications will still be processed, even though the Advance is no longer available.
- Applicants who have already submitted their applications will continue to be processed on a first-come, first-served basis.

Eligibility

- Small business owners and qualified agricultural businesses in all U.S. states and territories are currently eligible to apply for a low-interest loan due to Coronavirus (COVID-19).
- Agricultural businesses includes those businesses engaged in the production of food and fiber, ranching, and raising of livestock, aquaculture, and all other farming and agricultural related industries.

Economic Injury Disaster Loans (EIDL)

3.75% interest rate for small businesses; 2.75% for private non-profits.

Long-term repayments up to 30 years.

May be used for fixed debts, payroll, accounts payable and other bills affected by the disaster.

How can I use the EIDL funds?

- EIDL Purpose: to help finance a company's day-to-day transactions to keep it solvent for a 6-month period.
- EIDL funds can be used for:
 - Monthly utility, rent and payroll expenses
 - Scheduled loan or tax payments
 - Repairs, and replacing customary inventories
 - EIDL loan contract states "Use of Loan Proceeds" that the borrower will use all the proceeds of this loan solely as working capital to alleviate economic injury caused by the disaster.
- EIDL funds cannot pay-off old debts, refinance another debt, or buy capital assets, new construction, vehicles, etc. By law, SBA disaster loans cannot 'compete' with private sector lending.
- Keep your EIDL funds in a separate account. Do not comingle EIDL with other funds. This will help you demonstrate how you used EIDL funds if/when requested.

EIDL Repayment

- No payments on EIDL loans for one year from date of note.
- Applicant will receive amortization schedule after loan is funded from the servicing department.
- Usually, applicant will be notified before applicant's bank account on file will be debited for payment.
 - Applicant can also request to pay by mail or online payments.

- Copy of your government issued ID (ex. driver's license)

Why does SBA need my tax return?

The SBA was often unable to obtain a copy of the Federal Tax Return or transcripts from the IRS.

For all COVID-19 declarations the applicant is asked to self-certify the business' Gross Revenues, Cost of Goods Sold (operating expenses for a non-profit organization), rental or other losses. This information is how your organization's economic injury is determined.

For those individuals who request reconsideration, SBA will need a copy of their most recent Federal Tax Return and signed IRS Form 4506-T.

PLEASE NOTE:

Paycheck Protection Program (PPP) is no longer available pending Congressional action.

Program Deadline was August 8, 2020.
